I greatly appreciate the effort of my supervisor, Prof AJ Afolayan for the opportunity given me to be part of his team for the past three years. I am especially grateful for his patience and constructive criticism at every step during the study. He quickly became for me the role model of a successful researcher in the field, God bless you. I also like to express my gratitude to Prof DS Grierson my co supervisor for his contribution. I thank Dr Yakubu and Dr Mostfa for their support and my colleagues for their companionship and contribution in one way or the other to the success of this work.

I thank my parents for the moral and financial support to the study till this moment and their endless patience and constant encouragement when it was most required. I greatly appreciate your effort. God bless you.

I am so grateful to Mr. & Mrs. Moodley for providing accommodation as well as moral support during my stay in South Africa and I thank you for loving me, God bless you.

In addition, I am also grateful to my friend Dr. Koduru, who introduced me to Prof AJ Afolayan and whose encouragement throughout my PhD program, God blesses you.

I thank the NRF for providing bursary to carry out my study in South Africa.

Lastly, sincere thanks are expressed to the sangomas, rural dwellers and herbalists who provided ethnobotanical information.
